

TRADITIONAL ARCHERS OF OREGON
ANNUAL BANQUET AND BUSINESS MEETING
Hosted by Traditional Archers of Central Oregon
January 30, 2016
Sunriver - SHARC

SCHEDULE

- 8:00 Registration opens, display and vendor set-up.
- 9:00 – 10:00 TAO Board Meeting
- 9:00 – 4:00 Basket Weaving with Debby Chinn (pre-reg required, additional fee)
Debby returns to do another popular basket making class. This will be all day, concurrent with all other activities. Lunch is on your own. Cost will be $30.00 for instruction and materials. This class will fill quickly so don't delay.
- 10:00 – 11:00 Darren Clark – ODFW Wildlife Research Project Leader-East Region
The Role of Cougars in Elk Population Dynamics: Large, Small, or Unimportant?
- 11:00-1:00 LUNCH – on your own
- 1:00 – 2:00 Jon Nelson - High Desert Museum, Assistant Curator of Natural History
The High Desert Museum is surveying portions of the Deschutes National Forest for carnivore species, using camera trap bait stations with hair snares. The purpose of the study is to document the presence/absence primarily of montane red fox, but also other carnivore species, such as American marten and wolverine.
- 2:15 – 3:15 Russ Morgan – ODFW Wolf Coordinator
Russ will provide an update on all things “wolf” in Oregon
- 3:30 – 5:00 TAO Business Meeting
- 5:00 – 6:0 No-Host Happy Hour
- 6:00 – 8:00 Dinner and Awards Guest Speaker – Bill Hanlon, BHA (BC Chapter)
While hunting Dall sheep in the spectacularly wild Tatshenshini/Alsek Wilderness Park in 1999, Bill Hanlon and his two hunting partners discovered the preserved remains of an ancient hunter emerging from the ice on the edge of a glacier. Now, almost 16 years later, Bill tells the story of the life-changing discovery and the three subsequent expeditions back to the discovery site of Kwäday Dän Ts'ınchi, or “Long Ago Person Found.”

Raffles will be drawn and winners will be posted.
Please check before you leave to see if you've won.
